

(You Made Me Need) A Natural 20 // lyrics Brooke Lunderville

TTTO: (You Make Me Feel Like) A Natural Woman // Carole King & Gerry Goffin

Looking out on our last campaign
I wasn't always so expired
When I went to face another NPC
I did not expect an orb of fire
Before the day I met you, I trusted my dice
You're the key to my swift demise

'Cause you made me need, you made me need, you made me need a natural 20

When my roll was on the borderline
You made me critically fail it
I don't know just where my HP went
When an arrow pierced my mail shirt
Now I'm no longer doubtful of what I'm living for Because I'm dead
(pause)
spoken: "Well, that takes the mystery out of it."

'Cause you made me need, you made me need, you made me need a natural 20

Oh DM baby, what you done to me
You make me feel so chaotic good inside
And I just want to throw dice at you
You make me be not alive

'Cause you made me need, you made me need, you made me need a natural 20
