I Want To Die (Like They Do In Sci-Fi) // Brooke Lunderville

War and starvation fill many a hearse — Am Em
Heart disease takes two lives for every three — Dm B E
If you die in a car crash, you won't be the first — Am Em
But I'm hoping there's something less common for me — Dm B E

I want to die like they do in sci-fi! — A E A
A really glamourous death, a really famous last breath — A E
I want to die like they do in sci-fi! — A E A
I want to do something new, if it's the last thing I do — F E A

I could be strangled by quantum entanglement — Am F
Or maybe it turns out that comets cause cancer — Dm B E
I'll be unspeakably mangled by Lovecraftian angles — Am F
Or burn in the atmosphere like a star dancer — Dm B E

I want to die...

I'll get lunar silicosis, 307 ale cirrhosis — Am F
Or crustacean deprivation on the world without shrimp — Dm B E
Maybe an alien probe will laser my frontal lobe — Am F and make me travel back in time to the Hindenberg blimp — Dm B E

I want to die...

I'll be murdered inside a proton super-collider — Am F
By an evil AI who didn't like my query — Dm B E
I don't have to decide the best way to have died — Am F
I'll do it infinite times thanks to many-worlds theory — Dm B E

I want to die...

AUGHHHHHHH!
